24 September 1975

MEMORANDUM FOR: See Distribution

SUBJECT: Breakfast Session with the Special Subcommittee on Intelligence, House Armed Services Committee, Friday, 26 September 1975

1. Attached is an agenda for the scheduled meeting for Friday, 26 September, from 0800 hours to 1145 hours, for the Nedzi Subcommittee. The principal interest is for the new members (Stratton, Dickinson and Bennett) to be brought up-to-speed. This will be scrubbed by the Subcommittee if Friday is a legislative day which we will not know until Thursday afternoon.

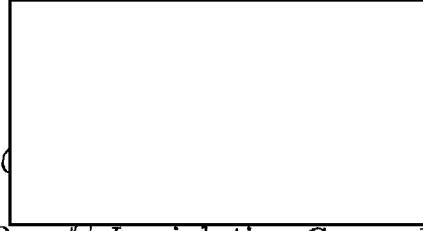

2. We have two problems. The agenda is more ambitious than time permits and it is quite possible the Subcommittee will want to go ahead despite Mr. Colby's absence because of testimony before the Church Committee.

3. There is no magic in getting all of the agenda accomplished in this three and three quarter hour session. Moreover, it is expected that the new members will have a number of questions. However, hopefully both they and we recognize the importance of their being caught up with the fundamentals involved as soon as possible. They feel under the gun and they, like us, have scheduling problems.

4. It is quite possible that the Deputy Directors can get the fundamentals across in about 20 minute segments each, with Mr. Blee starting out with collection from the human intelligence standpoint, turning over to Mr. Duckett for the technical side of the house, picking up NPIC and OEL, and turning over to Mr. Walsh as the principal spokesman on analysis, etc. If we don't make this a show and tell, hopefully we can complete the presentation aspect of section I in about an hour and a half with questions and answers then extending it hopefully no later than 1000 to 1030 which would permit us to get to the second item on the agenda, management. If we don't get all or part of management in, we will just have to take it up another time because we are firmly committed in getting the members, particularly Bennett, back to the Hill by 1215. We will just have to be flexible.

5. To conserve the time of all, we can have the first group breakfast with the members and then move to an available conference room, and pick up from there.
